1. The Advocate for the applicant filed an undertaking in this Court to deposit the amount of Rs.2,00,000/- within 8 weeks from the date of passing of an order by this Court. In my order dated 22.3.2006 I have recorded the statement of the Advocate for the applicant that if further time of 8 weeks is given for depositing the amount of Rs.2 lakhs which is the amount directed to be deposited then he will withdraw the application. The undertaking is taken on record and marked 'X'

for identification. The undertaking is accepted and in view of the undertaking the application is disposed of as withdrawn with a direction that if amount of Rs.2 lakhs is paid within 8 weeks from today the same should be accepted and the appeal should be proceeded. If there is any default, then the appellate Court will be at liberty to issue a non bailable warrant to take the applicant into custody pending the trial.
